

Birmingham Officer Killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Tongue, of Nechells Park Road, have been officially informed that their only son, Captain J. W. C. Tongue (10th Gloucesters), has been killed in action in France between September 25 and 29.

Captain Tongue was 23 years of age, and was educated at George Dixon Secondary School, where he matriculated. He proceeded to King Edward's High School, and from thence to Birmingham University. Here he obtained his degree of B.Sc., and was a member of the O.T.C. for three years. Upon the outbreak of war he immediately

CAPTAIN J. W. C. TONGUE.
offered his services.
